70 days to go: From Tuesday, July 9, the A1 Beach Pro Vienna 2024 will take place on Vienna's Heumarkt. Ticket sales for the brand new arena in the heart of the city are entering the hot phase. And media accreditations can now be applied for.

VIENNA: From Tuesday, July 9 to Sunday, July 14, 2024, the world's beach volleyball elite will meet in Vienna for the first time since 2019. The A1 Beach Pro Vienna, an Elite16 tournament organized by the FIVB, is also the dress rehearsal for the Summer Olympics in Paris, which begin shortly afterwards - and a trial by fire for the red-white-red teams, who will compete against the stars of the scene in the heart of the city.

Pre-sales of tickets for the brand new arena at Heumarkt are very promising. Some of the sessions are already fully booked. However, tickets are still available on beachvolleyball.at - especially for the day sessions, which as usual promise sun, party, top entertainment and great sport in a unique cauldron. VIP tickets can be ordered HERE.

Media accreditations now possible

Under this LINK from today, Tuesday, April 30, 2024, accreditation requests are possible. Media representatives are requested to submit their requests by Tuesday, July 2, 2024 at the latest. We ask for your understanding that no applications can be accepted after this date.
